Enjoy an Italian feast at Maggiano's Little Italy Restaurant in Boston. The family style luncheon will include: Coffee, Tea, Soft Drinks, Ciabatta Rolls, Tomato Caprese, Classic Bruschetta, Caesar Salad, Chicken Parmesan, Mom's Lasagna, Four-Cheese Ravioli with Pesto Alfredo Sauce, Chocolate Zuccotto Cake & New York Style Cheesecake. After lunch, we will visit the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum for a one-hour guided tour and time on your own to explore the museum, courtyard garden and gift shop. In the early morning hours of March 18, 1990, a pair of thieves disguised as police officers entered the Gardner Museum and stole 13 works of art by world-renowned artists such as Rembrandt, Vermeer, Manet, and Degas. The works, including Rembrandt's Christ in the Storm on the Sea of Galilee (his only known seascape) and Vermeer's The Concert, are worth more than $500 million. This remains the biggest unsolved art theft in world history. Learn the history of Isabella Stewart Gardner and view her remarkable collection of decorative arts. (Considerable Walking)
