PRESS RELEASE

Cold Case

The North Kingstown Police Department is seeking the public's assistance in a cold case. Law enforcement experience has shown that social media networks are a valuable tool to help resolve unanswered questions.

On February 16th 1980, the body of 24-year-old Miss Joanne Lee Reynolds was discovered brutally murdered in her apartment at 1185 Ten Rod Road in the Town of North Kingstown, Rhode Island – this tragedy remains unsolved. Joanne's memory is still very much alive with her family.

Detective John Urban has created a Facebook page for Miss Reynolds which describes who she was as a person and the senseless crime that took her life. The department is seeking any information, regardless of how trivial it may seem, regarding the days leading up to Miss Reynolds' murder and her personal life. Sometimes the information that a person may think is not important is very helpful to a police investigation.

The department is asking all Facebook users to 'share' this profile, <http://www.facebook.com/JoanneLeeReynolds>, with as many friends as possible.

Detective Urban can be contacted via email at joannereynoldsnk@gmail.com or by phone at 401-294-3316 ext. 8212. The identity of anyone who is able to provide information about Miss Reynolds will remain anonymous.
